Armstrong Relocation Owner Joins Society of Entrepreneurs

February 20, 2008

MEMPHIS – Tom Watson, CEO of Armstrong Relocation and Companies, is being inducted into the Society of Entrepreneurs. This honor recognizes Tom's role in reshaping the moving, storage and relocation industries.

"Tom's role as insightful visionary and bold risk-taker cannot be overstated," said Karen Fields Isaacman, Executive Vice President and Tom's business partner. "By expanding Armstrong's interests into the relocation services arena, Tom and Clyde Springer, my father, have made a positive difference in the lives of hundreds of thousands of transferees around the world."

About Society of Entrepreneurs

Society of Entrepreneurs was founded in 1991 to foster the development of the entrepreneurial spirit and to recognize the contributions of entrepreneurs to business and the community (www.SocietyofEntrepreneurs.com).
